

The Pocket Testament League - Introductory Note

The two pages inserted below are from the Great War Forum site 1914-1918.invisionzone.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=152655. The Pocket Testament League clearly knew how to communicate the Gospel of Christ. They gave 400,000 Testaments to men of the BEF in 1914 alone, www.ptl.org/about/history.php. It would seem that via the various Christian groups of the time, virtually every Great War British soldier mobilised i.e. over 6 million, would, or could, have received a Bible or New Testament.
